

DV Production for Educators

“We provide Digital skills for the new Millennium”

Course Summary

Join the DV revolution after taking this comprehensive Bootcamp. This is a class for educators wanting to start teaching video production with the new exciting digital video technology. This hands-on course will help them recognize terms and concepts associated with DV video production and become familiar with the tools and techniques they can use in their classrooms. Topics covered include; DV Camera Operation, Location Audio, The Movie studio on a Desktop, Nonlinear Editing and Graphics for Video. Emphasis will be on the production needs of institutional and educational users.

What You Will Learn

- Production Planning
- Shooting news stories
- Live Multi-Camera Production
- EFP Style Production
- Narrative Production
- Shooting Events and Sports
- Studio and Location Lighting
- Lighting for Interviews
- Camera Operation
- Location Audio
- Editing DV on a Desktop
- Choosing a NLE
- Designing Graphics for Video
- Encoding and Web Codecs
- Special Effects
- Editing Audio
- Importing Graphics and other Media
- Tape Formats

Pricing & Course Materials

The HDMTC DV Production Bootcamp is a four-day course for $795.

Contact Info

10515 Harwin Dr. #100 Houston, TX 77036
Ph. (713) 988-2818 Fx. (713) 995-4994
www.hdmtec.com E-mail us at info@hdmtec.com

